

LAW ENFORCEMENT LEADERS

To Reduce Crime & Incarceration

Invites you to:

The Case for Federal Sentencing Reform: A Perspective from Law Enforcement

Tuesday, February 9, 2016
4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Dirksen Senate Office Building, Room 226

Remarks by:

Sen. John Cornyn (R-Texas)
Senate Majority Whip
Member, Senate Judiciary Committee

Sen. Charles Grassley (R-Iowa)
Chairman, Senate Judiciary Committee

Sen. Mike Lee (R-Utah)
Member, Senate Judiciary Committee

Featuring:

Hon. Michael B. Mukasey
Former Attorney General of the United States for President George W. Bush

Ronal Serpas
Chairman, Law Enforcement Leaders to Reduce Crime and Incarceration
Former Police Superintendent, New Orleans, Louisiana

Tom Manger
President, Major Cities Chiefs' Association

Richard J. Pocker
Former U.S. Attorney, District of Nevada

Moderated by:

Brett Tolman, Former U.S. Attorney, District of Utah

Please join Congressional leadership and members of law enforcement to discuss their perspectives on the Sentencing Reform and Corrections Act of 2015, a bill that would reform mandatory minimum sentences. The briefing follows a pair of letters Republican leaders circulated to colleagues. In the letters, more than 130 law enforcement leaders urged Congress to pass the measure because federal sentencing reform will reduce both crime and unnecessary incarceration.

Please CLICK HERE to RSVP.