

INVITATION

Law Enforcement Policy Briefing: How Sentencing and Corrections Reform Makes Communities and Law Enforcement Safer Friday, July 8 | 10 a.m.- Noon | RHOB 2237

Featuring

Larry D. Thompson

Former United States Deputy Attorney General
Former United States Attorney, Northern District of Georgia

Brett L. Tolman

Former United States Attorney, District of Utah
Former Member of the Attorney General's Advisory Committee
Former Assistant United States Attorney, District of Utah

Matthew D. Orwig

Immediate Past President of the National Association of Former U.S. Attorneys (NAFUSA)
Former United States Attorney, Eastern District of Texas
Former Assistant United States Attorney, Eastern District of Texas

These former federal prosecutors and senior Justice Department officials will present data supporting the need for the federal sentencing and corrections reform bills moving in the House that will enhance the safety of our communities and those who protect them. Earlier this year, these officials joined more than 60 other former law enforcement officials on a letter calling for the passage of legislation in the Senate similar to that being considered in the House.

What: Congressional staff briefing featuring prominent federal law enforcement officials on the need for sentencing and corrections reform

When: Friday, June 8, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Where: RHOB 2237

To RSVP, or for more information, please contact

Andrew Howard at andrew@justiceactionnetwork.org.